Private lessons for adults and teens beginning drawing and painting

Private lessons are taught in Susan's art studio by appointment. Fee is $30 hour, most art supplies provided. An introduction into drawing and painting techniques and use of a variety of materials are demonstrated. Creating the illusion of three dimension using shading to create form in still life drawing and using a grid to enlarge an image to correct proportion. Color mixing and brush application in painting technique are examples of lessons. Students work at their own pace and interests. Call for time availability.
